Indian Superstitions.
 The Indian believes there are bon constructors in the streams of North America and also that the South American tapir lives in North America. He calls the bon constructor the fish-eater-war-tayer and calls the tapir moccasiner.

The Indian believes he has a cure and preventive for rabies, or hydrophobia.
 He also believes he can cure any snake bite on earth, from a ground rattler to a velvet tail or diamond rattler. An Indian never was known to go mad from dog bite or the from a rattler's bite, while other races succumb to the venom of a snake or go mad from the bite of a rabid dog.

The Indian when in battle and fatally wounded believes that if his medicine man can reach him with his bitter medicine before he dies it will give him instant relief and he will be able to escape from the battlefield. He thinks every man is honest until he finds him out, in which event he loses all confidence in him and never gets over it.

The Indian never makes up after falling out with any one. He may speak to an enemy as he passes, but dies with the hatred in his heart. Enfranchis-ment.

How "All Men Are Born Equal."
 The woman born beautiful doesn't bother to educate her intelligence, is spoiled by flattery, is unable to hold the men she attracts. The woman born homely is driven to develop her character and her mind, and so more than overcomes her handicap as against her pretty sister. The man born clever loses because he wins too easily and has no incentive to that sustained effort which alone achieves success. The man born "slow" develops patience, as ability, balance and, best of all, tenacity.

It comes near to being a universal rule that strong points and weak ones just about offset each other in any human being at the start and that the development is a matter for the man himself to determine. And there is no fatal handicap except the disposition to regard one's handicap as fatal. Saturday Evening Post.

A Memory Destroyer.
 Brown—I have just discovered what it is that destroys a man's memory completely. Green—What is it? Alsohol or tobacco? Brown—Neither; it's doing him a favor.

Only Forty Licensed Dogs.

Mayor Smith, in speaking with a Daily News representative today, said the dog nuisance in this town should be stopped.
 He referred to the fact that oftentimes during the day fights would take place on the principal streets, thereby causing excitement among the feminine sex.
 Mayor Smith says that many dogs are without licenses, and he advises owners to immediately procure them. There are about forty licensed curs in the city.

...Wanted...
 1,000 Reporters!

The Daily News wants 1,000 reporters. No, this is not a joke. We really want them, and we won't be happy until we get them.

In other words, The Daily News wants every person, male and female, 18 years of age and over, in Daytona and its environs, to get on the staff of the paper. The Daily News wants every scrap of local news that is worth printing to appear in its columns. The best way to get it is to ask the people who know about the news to send it to the paper.

So if you know of anything that has happened, or is about to happen, tell the City Editor about it or write to him.

Let every man and woman, youth and maid in and around Daytona become a reporter The Daily News.
